Description

Richie Kotzen's 1-of-1 STARFIELD "AMERICA" – Ibanez L.A. Custom Shop 1992

The Actual Guitar Featured in the 1992 Starfield Magazine Ad – Signed Ad Included

This is Richie Kotzen's personal 1-of-1 Starfield, hand-built in 1992 at the Ibanez L.A. Custom Shop during the final phase of his pre-Fender era. This guitar is a true one-off, unlike any production Starfield ever released.

Crafted side-by-side with master luthier Mike Lipe, this guitar reflects Richie's vision from top to bottom. It was part of the creative phase as Ibanez explored where to take Richie's gear before he eventually moved to Fender. What came out of that collaboration is one of the most visually and sonically stunning guitars ever built under the Starfield name.

Heavenly custom blue finish with a cloud-like depth
Distinct ridged body contour – totally unique to this guitar
Built by the Ibanez L.A. Custom Shop – not a production model
Includes original 1992 magazine ad – signed by Richie
Played and preserved since 1992 – never offered before
Comes with original case, tremolo bar, and white strap

While a few Kotzen- model Starfield Cabriolets made it to market, nothing like this was ever sold. This is a true one-of-one — built for Richie, played by Richie, and featured in one of the rarest ads of the era.

✂ Own a piece of guitar history, a RARE visual legacy, and a stunning L.A. Custom Shop build all in one.
