Description

Original 1989 Ibanez Magazine Ad – Full-Tilt Pinball Theme – Hand-Signed by Richie Kotzen

Backed by Family History and Ibanez Shred Era Nostalgia

This isn't just a vintage guitar ad — it's a hand-signed and one of the most iconic Ibanez ad layouts ever created. Themed around a full-tilt pinball fantasy and loaded with shred-era energy, this piece captures Richie during his early rise on Shrapnel Records, armed with his Ibanez RG.

What Makes This a Killer Lot:

- ✓ Full-Page 1989 Ibanez Advertisement – Original mag print
- ✓ Hand-Signed by Richie Kotzen – Bold silver marker across the top
- ✓ Pinball Fantasy Theme – Featuring early Ibanez RG150/160 guitars
- ✓ Richie's Father's Showroom Used for the Shoot – The pinball machines shown were from Richie's dad's amusement game company
- ✓ Graphics Edited onto Actual Machines – Richie's promo images were inserted into backglass panels
- ✓ Straight from the Shred Era – A perfect snapshot of Richie's launch into guitar god status
