LOT 50 - Richie Kotzen's Stage-Used Victory V30 "The Countess" Amplifier Head

Description

Richie Kotzen's Stage-Used Victory V30 "The Countess" Amplifier Head
Signed by Richie • Includes Original Setlist Still Taped to the Amp

This is the real deal — a Victory V30 "The Countess" amp personally used on stage by Richie Kotzen before his signature model ever existed. This unit was part of Richie's live rig and still has his handwritten setlist from a series of shows taped to the top. A killer snapshot of his live catalog.

- ✓ Signed by Richie Kotzen on the side panel
- ✓ Includes original BOOST footswitch and long cable
- ✓ Made in England by Victory Amplification
- ✓ Comes in original Victory padded carry bag
- ✓ Full control suite: Clean Gain, Overdrive Gain, Bass/Mid/Treble, Clean/OD Master
- ✓ EL34 tube configuration + single-ended mode switch

Used but battle-proven — this amp has seen stages, sweat, and shredding. Legendary tone with real pedigree. From the same hands that wrote and played "You Can't Save Me," "Help Me" and "Remember".
