Description

Ibanez DL-10 Delay – Richie Kotzen's First Endorsement Product from Ibanez – Personal Pedal from the Start of His Career

This is Richie Kotzen's original Ibanez DL-10 Delay pedal — the first product ever given to him by Ibanez at the very beginning of his endorsement deal in the late 1980s. Used by Richie on stage and in the studio.

Produced between 1986–1989, this DL-10 has been with Richie since the start of his professional music career, making it one of the most historically significant pieces in his personal gear vault.

Details & Notes:

- Model: DL-10 Delay / Soundtank Series
- Handwritten label on back reads "XDL10" – exact reason unknown

Why It Matters:

This isn't just a delay pedal.

This is the first piece of gear ever handed to Richie by Ibanez. It's been with him since the beginning — through the fire, the sessions, the growth — and now, it's being passed to a fan or collector who understands its weight.

You can collect pedals... or you can own one that helped launch a legendary career. Richie's first Ibanez pedal. Enough said.
