LOT 70 - Richie Kotzen's Personal Studio Tuner – Boss TU-12 Digital Chromatic Tuner

Description

Richie Kotzen's Personal Studio Tuner – Boss TU-12 Digital Chromatic Tuner
Used in Richie's Private and Commercial Studios – Includes Original Worn Case

Straight from Richie Kotzen's private stash comes this vintage Boss TU-12 Digital Chromatic Tuner, a true studio-tested piece of gear. This unit was part of Richie's everyday studio setup — used in his personal home studio and HEADROOM Studios, where countless tracks and albums came to life.

The tuner is in solid working condition, showing only light wear — but the case tells the story. It's been taped, battered, and hauled across sessions and setups for years, adding to the legacy of the piece. Whether you're a tone purist or a Kotzen collector, this is the real deal.

Includes:

- Boss TU-12 Tuner
- Original black case (heavily worn/taped – see photos)

Studio-used, well-preserved, and part of Richie's personal rig for years — don't miss your shot at this functional piece of Kotzen history.
