LOT 89 - Richie Kotzen's Personal Fender Telecaster – Japan Limited Run | Ultra-Rare Artist Prototype

Description

Richie Kotzen's Personal Fender Telecaster – Japan Limited Run | Ultra-Rare Artist Prototype

Straight from Richie Kotzen's personal arsenal, this is one of only two black Telecasters he kept from a 2011 limited-run collaboration with Fender Japan. This sleek, dark beauty is the exact model chosen for release when Richie worked directly with Fender to expand his signature Tele lineup.

Production Notes:

- Only <100 produced in this exact configuration.
- This is one of two Kotzen personally retained from the project.
- The other remains in his collection — this is your only shot.

Guitar Specs & Highlights:

- Model: Fender Telecaster (Made in Japan)
- Serial: T087802
- Finish: Deep Gloss Black
- Neck: Maple w/ signature-style headstock + Richie's Signature Stamp
- Pickups: Traditional Telecaster configuration
- Electronics: Under-mount control cavity – no pickguard, clean and modern aesthetic
- Tuners: Gotoh 510s w/ Amber Buttons – an ultra-rare Custom Shop upgrade.

This guitar is not just part of Kotzen's Fender journey — it's a living artifact from the moment his signature series expanded. Whether you're a collector, Kotzen superfan, or tone-chaser, this is the kind of instrument that doesn't come around again.

Artist-Owned, Stage-Ready, and Collector-Grade.
