Description

Richie Kotzen's Personal Tech 21 VT Bass 1000 Amp

Stage-Used by Richie & Touring Bassists from the Richie Kotzen Band and Smith/Kotzen Shows – Personally Signed by Richie

This Tech 21 VT Bass 1000 amplifier head comes direct from Richie Kotzen's own touring rig — a true workhorse that saw action across multiple tours and configurations. Used both by Richie himself and by various bassists during live performances with the Richie Kotzen Band and Smith/Kotzen, this amp didn't live in a studio — it lived on the road.

It's also personally signed by Richie Kotzen, making it a rare piece of both functional pro gear and collectible-grade memorabilia.

Key Details:

- Model: Tech 21 VT Bass 1000
- Signature: Hand-signed by Richie Kotzen in silver marker on the chassis top
- Use History: Employed as a live bass amp for both Richie Kotzen solo tours and Smith/Kotzen shows
- Tour-used by Richie and his band bassists
- Direct from Richie's personal gear archive

About the VT Bass 1000:

This amp is a dual-channel beast that pushes 1,000 watts of pure, analog SansAmp tone. Known for its warm, tube-like voicing, clarity at high output, and road-tested durability, it's a favorite among pros who want punch without digital fuss.

- Dual preamp channels with Drive, Character, EQ & Level controls
- Independent input gain and footswitch control
- XLR DI output with ground lift
- Power Amp In / Preamp Out / Tuner Out
- Two speaker outputs
- Made in the U.S.A.

Whether you're a collector, a working bassist, or a Kotzen superfan, this piece bridges two worlds — it's both a professional-grade performance amp and a personal artifact signed by one of rock's most versatile guitarists.

This is the kind of gear that sounds just as legit as its story. Own it, use it, or display it — this amp is part of the legacy.
